☐ Cancellation of Admission

1. Admission will be revoked even after enrollment if any forgery, alteration of documents, false information, or unfair practices (such as proxy interviews) are discovered. In such cases, paid tuition will not be refunded.
2. Double registration at two or more universities for the same semester is prohibited. Violation of this rule will lead to the cancellation of admission, and tuition will not be refunded.
3. For expected graduates, admission will be canceled if they fail to obtain their high school diploma by the scheduled graduation date.
4. Admission will be canceled if a student visa (D-2) is denied by the Korea Immigration Service or a diplomatic mission abroad. In this case, tuition will be refunded in full (excluding currency exchange and transfer fees). The applicant is responsible for visa issuance, and admission may be canceled if a visa is not obtained by the entrance ceremony without a justifiable reason.
5. Admission will be canceled if a subsequent academic background check reveals that the applicant does not meet the qualifications. Tuition will not be refunded. (For Chinese high school graduates, a CHSI authentication report can replace this check).

☐ Other Important Notices

1. Applicants must fully understand all guidelines, as the university does not provide individual notices for every detail. Applicants are solely responsible for any disadvantages caused by failure to follow these guidelines.
2. Admission results will be announced through individual notifications (email, SMS, or phone) using the contact information provided in the application. Any disadvantage caused by failing to check these notices is the applicant's responsibility.
3. Matters not specified in these guidelines will be governed by relevant laws, university regulations, and the decisions of the University Admissions Management Committee.

☐ Tuition Refund

If you wish to withdraw your admission and request a refund after paying tuition, please visit the International Cooperation Center with your Tuition receipt, Official ID and Copy of your bankbook. Refunds are processed according to university regulations. For overseas bank transfers, the refund amount will exclude transfer fees and exchange rate differences.
