V Important Notes

- All applicants must submit their original application documents to the Graduate School Office either by postal mail or in person. Submission via email, fax, or other electronic means is not permitted.
- Failure to submit all required documents, provide complete information in the application form, check application results, or complete the necessary procedures for entry into Korea may result in the cancellation of admission. In such cases, applicants are solely responsible for any consequences.
- If an applicant gains admission through fraudulent means, such as forgery, falsification, or misrepresentation of required documents, their admission will be revoked, even after enrollment. Furthermore, all academic records will be permanently erased, even if the misconduct is discovered after graduation. In addition, the university may pursue criminal charges against the applicant in accordance with relevant Korean laws.
- International students (D-2 visa holders) are required to enroll in the National Health Insurance Service (NHIS).
- All submitted documents are non-returnable, regardless of the application outcome.
- Any matters not explicitly stated in these guidelines will be handled in accordance with the university's admissions procedures and regulations.
- The cancellation of registration and refund of tuition fees will be processed in accordance with the university's tuition payment policies and regulations.
- If you are expected to receive your bachelor's or master's degree, you must obtain and submit the degree certificate by February 25, 2026.
- Successful applicants must obtain a student visa by either:
 - 1) Changing their visa status at the Busan Immigration Office, or
 - 2) Applying for a student visa at the Korean Embassy or Consulate in their home country.

This process should be completed after receiving the Certificate of Admission from the KMOU International Office.
